

A message from Tracy

March 23, 2020

Dear Friends,

On Friday, March 20, we made the difficult decision to close both Tracycakes locations until further notice due to the COVID-19 outbreak. Although we love nothing more than serving our wonderful guests, we're doing our part to ensure the health and safety of our team, our guests, and our Abbotsford and Langley communities.

If you're not already doing so, we urge you to wash your hands often, shop only for what you need (and only when you need it), and, for the sake of others and yourself, to please stay home.

Though our doors are closed for the time being, our hearts remain wide open. If there's a community need you're aware of that we can help fill, please email us at info@tracycakesonline.com. We'll do what we can.

We look forward to the day we can welcome you once again, providing the freshest foods and baked goods and the high-quality experience you've come to expect from Tracycakes. Until then, please keep yourselves, your families, and everyone around you safe and healthy.

Sincerely,

Tracy Dueck, Owner & CEO
